

THE RESEARCH CYCLE

RESPONDING TO TEXT

Reading Strategies

MAKE CONNECTIONS between what you are reading and what you already know.

VISUALIZE what is happening in the text.

WONDER freely as you read.

PREDICT what will happen next.

THINK ABOUT how the text makes you feel.

Ask Yourself

What does this text remind me of?
Have I read or experienced anything like this before?
Does any of this surprise me? Why?

Can I picture in my mind what is described in the text?
How might a picture or diagram help me picture and understand the text?

I wonder why this is the way it is?
I wonder what else there is to know about this?

What part of the text helped me predict?
What did I already know that helped me predict?
Which illustrations helped me predict?

How do I feel about what I'm reading?
